FPQL TRANSFORMED TO SPQL

Our Group formerly known as the Forum of Pharma Quality Leaders (FPQL), has officially transformed as the Society for Pharma Quality Leaders (SPQL).

Under this new identity, SPQL is now formally registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860, and as a Public Trust under the Mumbai Public Trust Act, 1950. While our name has evolved, our core ethos of "Holding Hands for Enhanced Compliance" remains stronger than ever.

WHO WE ARE

SPQL is a premier professional organization dedicated to fostering a robust and influential community of pharmaceutical leaders. We bring together experts from QA, QC, R&D (Basic, Analytical & Formulation), Regulatory Affairs, and Manufacturing under one unified roof.

WE ARE THE ARCHITECTS OF THE STANDARD, THE VOICES OF COMPLIANCE, AND THE GUARDIANS OF PATIENT TRUST.

OUR VISION AND MISSION

- Our Vision: To build a community of pharmaceutical leaders from QA, QC, R&D (Basic, Analytical & Formulation), Regulatory and Manufacturing functions committed to advancing safe, effective, affordable and reliable medicines for every patient.
- Our Mission: To empower a collaborative community of pharmaceutical leaders through education and scientific exchange, fostering a culture of continuous improvement that elevates global quality systems, advances technological innovation, and ensures the highest integrity of medicines for patients.

CORE OBJECTIVES

- 01 Empowerment through Education: Strengthening pharmaceutical quality systems by cultivating pharma leaders through collaboration, education, and leadership development.
- 02 A Culture of Excellence: Championing best practices and fostering scientific exchange that drives continuous quality improvement across all functional areas.
- 03 Industry Leadership: Uniting the voices of pharma functions under one roof to shape policy, advance technological innovation, and ensure patient safety and product integrity.
